

Celebrating 150 Years

Timeline showing the development of the national governing body for swimming in England.

- 1860 Brighton SC founded – the club with the longest recorded continuous existence in England.
- 1869 The first name for Swim England was the Associated Metropolitan Swimming Clubs which was formed by the coming together of London swim clubs at a congress held in the German gymnasium in King’s Cross, London. Later in the year, the name was changed to the London Swimming Association.
- 1869 Otter SC founded and will also be celebrating 150 years of existence.
- 1870 The organisation was renamed The Metropolitan Swimming Association.
- 1873 Another name change, this time to the Swimming Association of Great Britain (SAGB).
- 1884 Amateur Swimming Union (ASU) formed following a disagreement with the SAGB over the definition of ‘amateur’.
- 1886 Agreement on the definition of ‘amateur’ reached between the SAGB and the ASU. This led to a reformation of the constitution and laws, thus creating The Amateur Swimming Association.
- 1887 Queen Victoria consents to be the patron of The Amateur Swimming Association.
- 1888 National Water Polo Championships begin.
- 1892 The Amateur Swimming Association’s International Committee issues first codified rules for Water Polo.
- 1893 The Amateur Swimming Association issues its first Handbook.
- 1899 Inauguration of the first Professional Certificate for Teachers of Swimming.
- 1935 The Amateur Diving Association dissolved itself and Diving became part of The Amateur Swimming Association.
- 1952 The Amateur Swimming Association elects its first woman President.
- 1953 Participation in early forms of synchronised swimming was first encouraged when The Amateur Swimming Association invited the USA Solo Synchronised Swimming Champion and the President of the Canadian Synchronised Swimming Association to tour the country.
- 1953 Her Majesty The Queen becomes Patron of The Amateur Swimming Association.
- 1956 Long distance swimming gathered popularity with the formation of the British Long Distance Swimming Association which affiliated quickly with The Amateur Swimming Association.

- 1960 Learn to Swim Awards created.
- 1962 Survival Awards created.
- 1964 The Amateur Swimming Association set up a specialist Synchronised Swimming committee.
- 1970 Norman Sarsfield became the first employee of The Amateur Swimming Association as Secretary.
- 1972 First National Swimming Age-Group Championships.
- 1972 First ever Masters event in Britain – organised by Otter SC.
- 1973 The Amateur Swimming Association headquarters moved to Harold Fern House in Loughborough.
- 1981 Masters Swimming was introduced at national level.
- 1982 The Amateur Swimming Association became a registered company.
- 1996 Open Water Swimming was first included in the Olympics.
- 2008 The Amateur Swimming Association rebranded to the ASA.
- 2009 Open Water Championships first held at Rother Valley.
- 2010 The ASA moved to its current home at SportPark on the Loughborough University campus.
- 2014 British Swimming became a separate organisation dedicated to supporting elite athletes from across the UK. The ASA continued to focus on supporting young people and adults to learn how to swim and achieve the most out of swimming through club and recreational swimming.
- 2017 The ASA rebranded to Swim England.
- 2017 His Royal Highness The Duke of Cambridge takes over the Swim England patronage from HRH The Queen.
- 2017 Council voted in favour of incorporation and a new Limited Company, with charitable status, was formed: The Amateur Swimming Association (Swim England) Limited.
- 2018 A joint submission by Swim England and British Swimming leads the two organisations to become the first national governing bodies to be awarded the Advanced Level Equality Standard for Sport.
- 2019 Swim England celebrates 150 years as the first national governing body for swimming.

*For more information or to submit additional information email SwimEngland150@swimming.org.
Last updated January 2019.*